AN EASTER TEAM GAME

Divide into two teams for a very short Easter pictorial game. Select some objects from the Easter story and write them on separate slips of paper (eg - cockerel / nails / crown of thorns / spear / thirty pieces of silver / vinegar / the curtain in the temple / Pilate's wash basin / etc.) Then follow the usual Pictionary rules for two very quickfire rounds.

What Easter hymn or song has a special meaning or memory for you?

If you could pass one law that everyone in the world had to obey what would it be?

Take the letters of your christian name and think of a quality you would like to grow in for each letter. e.g. Peter = Patience - Endurance - Thankfulness - Encouragement - Reliability (Don't worry if you can't cover every letter - especially with long names!)

In two teams take turns in being blindfolded and guessing by feeling the identity of some ordinary household objects e.g. Scissors - an egg - a sock - a corn flake - an oxo cube - etc LESSON - It's difficult if you don't have vision

TALK ABOUT - A time when you lost something very important or valuable. How did it happen? - How did it feel? - What did you do? - Did you find it again? - How did it feel when you found it?

A Good Old Favourite that's worth running again. Give everyone a piece of paper and get them to draw a picture of their face only - illustrating the kind of day they have had. THEN - Fold the pictures, get everyone to choose one at random, you have to guess who it is and what they are feeling. Don't reveal the correct identities until the very end.

What is the most relaxing thing you have ever done? OR - The most relaxing place you have ever been?

CHINESE WHISPERS

Depending on the size of the group. Prepare some short messages - e.g. a shopping list with 4 or 5 items; instructions to meet somewhere including the time, the place, the reason and something to wear; an order for a three course meal. Then whisper it down the line and get the last person to write out the message. Compare all the messages at the end. Talk about the importance of listening and understanding.

TALK ABOUT - A time when you were misunderstood - what happened - was it resolved - how?

Prepare some smells - eg lemon / banana / strawberry / marmite / bleach (careful) / meths etc. Form two teams and take turns in guessing whilst blindfolded.

TALK ABOUT - A large procession, march, or public celebration that you remember seeing or being a part of.

ALPHABET GAME

In a circle - call out things that followers of Jesus should be like or do, for each letter of the alphabet in turn. Make it quickfire with people saying pass but aim at something for EVERY letter. Be generous and creative EG - A = Actively evangelistic - Q = Quietly generous X = Exceptionally loving - etc

Ask those who have been baptised by immersion to share what it was like - what happened - how did it feel?

TEAM GAME

How many people's names can you make from the letters in PENTECOST SUNDAY in 5 minutes? e.g. STAN / DANNY / PETE

TALK ABOUT - Your first encounter with supernatural spiritual gifts. Where was it? - What was happening? - How did you feel? - What did you do?

TEAM GAME

In two teams - give each team a large potato. Make a list of as many uses you can think of for a potato in 5 minutes - sensible and silly.

Think about a time when someone, or something that happened to you, brought you encouragement just when you needed it. Share it with the group.

If you could sell anything door-to-door (non-religious), what would it be and why?

If you could visit a friend or relative anywhere in the world who would you choose and why?

Paul says in 2 Cor 5:17 "The OLD has gone, the NEW has come". Share something "OLD" that has gone and something "NEW" that has come as a result of being a "NEW CREATION"

Which event from the Bible would you most like to have been a part of and why?

What was the best thing your father or mother ever said to you OR did for you?

ALPHABET FEAST - This worked especially well in Youth Cells. Go round the circle in turn Start with "I went to a feast and we all ate - APPLE PIE.

Next Person "I went to a feast and we all ate - APPLE PIE and BACON ROLLS

Next Person "I went to a feast and we all ate - APPLE PIE and BACON ROLLS and CHICKEN LEGS

NOTE: Each item has to be TWO words starting with the next letter in the alphabet. Keep going round until the memory begins to fade - the list gets too long - or you get bored.
